Plaintiffs,

v.

SCOTT DAVIS, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:18-CV-00551-MMD-CLB

ORDER REGARDING IN CAMERA DOCUMENT REVIEW

10 On August 31, 2021, the Court ordered Defendants to submit certain documents 11 in camera related to specific requests for production of documents served by Shaw on 12 Defendant LeGrand. (ECF No. 179.) The Court received the documents on September 13 29, 2021 and has completed its review. Defendants are ordered to supplement their 14 responses to Shaw's requests for production, as detailed below.

15 | I. Legrand Request for Production of Documents 8-10 (Set 16)

16 At the conclusion section of the Court's Order ECF No. 179, it appears the Court
17 erroneously indicated that these documents should be provided in camera for the Court's 18 review prior to disclosure to Plaintiffs. (ECF No. 179 at 22.) However, in the body of the 19 order, these documents were not required to be provided in camera prior to their 20 disclosure. (ECF No. 179 at 16.) Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Court did 21 conduct an in camera review of these documents. The Court finds that these documents
22 do not contain any confidential information or information that would cause any security 23 concerns. Therefore, the Court orders Defendants to provide the documents in their 24 supplement to Shaw's Request for Production of Documents 8-10 (Set 16).

25 II. Legrand Request for Production of Documents 16-18 and 20 (Set 41)

26 Defendants originally objected to producing documents responsive to Shaw's 27 Request to Production of Documents 16-18 and 20 (Set 41) to LeGrand because they 28 claimed the documents were "confidential," contained "sensitive information about other

1 inmates," and/or the "official information privilege" applied. (ECF No. 179 at 17.) Shaw
 2 requested the Court conduct an in camera review of these documents, and Defendants
 3 agreed. Thus, the Court ordered LeGrand to submit documents responsive to Shaw's 4 Request for Production of Documents 16-18 and 20 (Set 41), in camera, for the Court's 5 review. (ECF No. 179 at 22.)

6 Having completed that review, the Court sustains Defendants' objections in part,
 7 and overrules Defendants' objections in part. The Court finds that some of the documents
 8 do contain confidential and sensitive information that should not be disclosed. However, 9 the Court also finds that some of the documents, or parts of the documents, do not contain 10 confidential or privileged information and should be disclosed either in their entirety, or 11 with appropriate redactions.

12 Therefore, the Court orders Defendants to supplement their responses to Shaw's 13 Request for Production of Documents 16-18 and 20 (Set 41) as follows:
